SITE 104 - INVESTIGATOR CLINICAL NOTE (UNSCHEDULED VISIT)
Study: SFT-301 (Velorantib in moderate-to-severe plaque psoriasis)
Site: 104, Mumbai
Subject ID: 104-0217 Initials: R.K. Age: 54 years Sex: Female
Visit date: 16-Mar-2026

Medical history: Hypertension, controlled on amlodipine 5 mg once daily. No known drug allergies.

Study treatment: Velorantib 50 mg orally once daily, started on 02-Mar-2026.

Presenting complaint: Subject attended an unscheduled visit with a widespread itchy rash.
Rash first noted on 14-Mar-2026 according to the subject at today's visit.
On examination: erythematous maculopapular rash, grade 3, on trunk and arms, covering approximately 40% of body surface area. No mucosal involvement. Temperature 37.9 C.

Assessment and plan
Event: generalised maculopapular rash, CTCAE grade 3.
The subject was admitted to hospital on 16-Mar-2026 for observation and IV management.
Seriousness: hospitalisation.
Study drug interrupted on 16-Mar-2026 (last dose 15-Mar-2026).
Treatment: IV methylprednisolone 40 mg daily and oral cetirizine 10 mg once daily.
Outcome at time of report: not yet recovered.

Investigator: Dr. Anjali Mehta, Principal Investigator, Site 104
Received by sponsor drug safety: 16-Mar-2026